The International Lifeguard Critical Incident Response Alliance (ILCIRA) announces United States IRS 501(c)(3) Nonprofit Status to enhance Crisis Intervention Services for lifeguards and aquatic management teams after Critical Incidents.

Cumberland, Rhode Island, June 04, 2024 - The International Lifeguard Critical Response Alliance (ILCIRA) is proud to announce it is officially a nonprofit organization with tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code. This status will help broaden our access to funding that will allow us to better carry out our mission delivery services.

About ILCIRA

The International Lifeguard Critical Incident Response Alliance (ILCIRA) follows evidence-based industry best practice models for responding to critical incidents. Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) is a method of helping first responders and others who have been involved in critical incidents that leave them emotionally and/or physically affected by those incidents. CISM is a term that refers to a comprehensive, integrative, strategic planning system complete with a multitude of crisis intervention tactics. The confidential process helps the impacted aquatic professional rebound from the effects of a critical incident, restore adaptive functioning and to return to active duty and their lives.

Expert's in staff wellness and business continuity after traumatic events, our team ensures your lifeguards and allied support staff receive a standard of care consistent with industry best practices. Bringing compassion to all we do, our evidence based approach ensures you have the support that fits your team and business. We help aquatic first responders Prepare, Respond, Recover and Repeat.
